

Tuesday, 25 December 2012

Bangladesh: Bird flu in Gazipur

Authorities in Gazipur's Kaliakoir upazila started culling more than 1.5 lakh poultry and destroying 5 lakh eggs from Monday night after an outbreak of bird flu was confirmed.

<http://www.thedailystar.net/newDesign/news-details.php?nid=262676>

India: Anti-rabies vaccine in short supply

The biting spree by stray dogs in Bhavanipuram continues and killing a five-year-old boy, which created havoc in the city, exposed the lack of preparedness of Vijayawada Municipal Corporation-run hospitals to meet such exigencies.

<http://www.thehindu.com/news/cities/Vijayawada/antirabies-vaccine-in-short-supply/article4231800.ece>

India: Two minors died of encephalitis

Two children succumbed to encephalitis in a government hospital here pushing the death toll due to the viral infection in the eastern region of Uttar Pradesh to 591 this year.

<http://news.outlookindia.com/items.aspx?artid=784552>

Indonesia: Suspected bird flu victim in Semarang

The Central Java Health Agency says it has received a report of a suspected case of bird flu in the province. The 54-year-old man, a resident of the Sambiroto subdistrict, was currently under treatment at St. Elisabeth Hospital in Semarang, officials said.

<http://www.thejakartapost.com/news/2012/12/19/suspected-bird-flu-victim-semarang.html>

Indonesia: Bird flu causes death of thousands of chickens in Bantul

Bird flu has likely caused the death of thousands of chickens in Bantul, Yogyakarta, over the past two months, said the head of the regency's Agriculture and Forestry Agency, Edy Suharyanta, on Wednesday.

<http://www.thejakartapost.com/news/2012/12/19/bird-flu-causes-death-thousands-chickens-bantul.html>

Nepal: Confirmed bird flu in Dhading

Central Veterinary Lab, Tripureshwar has confirmed that chicken at a poultry farm in Dharke, Naubise in Dhading district died due to bird flu.

http://www.myrepublica.com/portal/index.php?action=news_details&news_id=46837

Nepal: Bird flu reported in Kathmandu for first time in 3 years

Bird flu was reported in Nepali capital Kathmandu for the first time in three years, since the disease appeared in Nepal in 2009, officials said Tuesday.

<http://www.globaltimes.cn/content/752141.shtml>