

Tuesday, 1 January 2013

India: Kashmir poultry reels under Ranikhet outbreak

Poultry sector has been badly hit in Kashmir as around 50,000 birds have died in last 12 days after the outbreak of Ranikhet disease in the valley.

<http://www.risingkashmir.in/news/kashmir-poultry-reels-under-ranikhet-outbreak-38752.aspx>

Indonesia: No vaccine for clade 2.3.2.1

Outbreaks of bird flu or Avian Influenza (AI) has attacked thousands of ducks in some areas. It takes a new vaccine that the virus is not getting into. Experts Veterinary drh Prof. Widya Asmara claimed, since no new vaccines, one way that they can do is spraying disinfectant and tighten poultry traffic.

<http://news.detik.com/read/2012/12/26/183757/2127300/10/itik-terjangkit-ai-pakar-ugm-perlu-vaksin-baru-untuk-mengatasinya?9922032>

Indonesia: Health warning over new strain of avian influenza

Health Minister Nafsiah Mboi has revealed that there is a new strain of the avian flu virus killing tens of thousands of ducks in East, Central and West Java but no indication that the new virus affects humans.

<http://www.thejakartaglobe.com/home/health-warnings-over-new-strain-of-avian-influenza/563828?>

Nepal: Another bird flu outbreak confirmed in Sitapaila Farm

The Directorate of Animal Health today confirmed presence of bird flu virus in a poultry farm owned by Surya Mohan Pokharel in Sitapaila, Kathmandu.

<http://www.thehimalayantimes.com/fullNews.php?headline=Bird+flu+case+confirmed+in++Sitapaila+farm&NewsID=359328>