

No 9

Tuesday, 26 February 2013

Cambodia: 7th human death of bird flu

A 20 month old boy from ANg Rumduol village, Angkor Chey commune, Angkor Chey district, Kampot province was found to be positive for H5N1 by the Institute Pasteur du Cambodge on 19 February 2013.

http://www.cdcmoh.gov.kh/PressRelease/29thAIPressrelease_Eng.pdf

Cambodia: 8th human bird flu death

Cambodia reported on Tuesday that a 35-year-old man died of Avian Influenza H5N1, bringing the death toll to eight and the number of cases to nine in 2013, health officials and victim's family said Tuesday. The man, identified as Thoeun Doeun, lived in Steung Trang district of Eastern Kampong Cham province.

<http://www.bernama.com/bernama/v7/wn/newsworld.php?id=930371>

Cambodia: Reported HPAI outbreak in poultry in Kampot

In addition to the 2 outbreaks of HPAI in Kampong Cham reported in the Weekly Disease Information Update No 8, another outbreak of HPAI in Srongae village, Beung Nimol commune, Chhouk district was confirmed.

http://www.oie.int/wahis_2/public/wahid.php/Reviewreport/Review?page_refer=MapFullEventReport&reportid=13050

Indonesia: Bird flu in Situbondo,

Thousands of ducks died suddenly in the village Demung, District B Vesuki, confirmed positive for bird flu virus. Certainty that it is caused by AI virus, delivered by a team coordinator, of the Participatory Disease Surveillance and Response, Department of Animal Husbandry, DVM Danu Ariyanto Surya, on Friday (22 / 2/2013).

<http://surabaya.tribunnews.com/2013/02/22/ribuan-itik-mati-mendadak-positif-flu-burung#sthash.bzlYaWQv.fRS6jnUc.dpbs>

Nepal: Siberian birds responsible for bird flu

Director at the Department of Livestock Service, Dr Nar Bahadur Rajwar, has said the Siberian birds coming to Nepal in the cold season have transmitted the bird flu to the fowls here.

<http://thehimalayantimes.com/fullNews.php?headline=Siberian+birds+responsible+for+bird+flu%3A+Vet&NewsID=367297>

Vietnam: Quang Nam cries out for help of against blue ear disease in pigs

Some 686 pigs in six districts in the central province of Quang Nam have died of Porcine Reproductive and Respiratory Syndrome Virus (PRRSV) also called blue ear disease. Quang Nam's authorities are crying out for help as the rampant disease has already wiped out many herds in the province.

<http://www.saigon-gpdaily.com.vn/Health/2013/2/104213/>

Vietnam: Streptococcus Suis virus rears its ugly head

A bacterium virus called 'Streptococcus Suis' from pigs claimed two lives in North Vietnam, the Central Tropical Disease Hospital in Hanoi announced. The Central Tropical Disease Hospital has admitted two people infected with the above bacterium, said Dr Nguyen Hong Ha, head of the hospital.

<http://www.saigon-gpdaily.com.vn/Health/2013/2/104206/>